

Since 2021 Lecturer for the LMU and IU. Topics:

- managing cultural diversity in teams and organization
- intercultural competence.

2015 Founded Culture Consultancy to develop tailor-made formats for international collaboration

Since 2007 Independent instructor and advisor on intercultural and diversity management for specialists and executives working internationally as well as for partners on secondment

2013 – 2019 Independent instructor and advisor for AUDI Ingolstadt on intercultural management for specialists and executives working in Mexico as well as for partners on secondment

2004-2006 Leadership experience as interim manager in the professional service sector and as chairwoman of the board of SIETAR Deutschland e.V.

1999 - 2004 Experienced consultant for various international companies on the subject of leadership culture, conflict management, diversity management, intercultural management as well as learning and development

Industry experience:

Automotive industry, international organisations, and governmental authorities, financial services, professional services, insurance, transport, and logistics

References in the field of intercultural training (excerpt):

Aerotech GmbH, Audi AG, BASF SE, BOS GmbH & Co. KG, Geiger Automotive GmbH, Getrag Ford GmbH, German Society for international Collaboration (GIZ), University München und Freiburg, ENREM Programme of the University San Luis Potosí, Mexiko, Metalsa Automotive GmbH, SaarGummi Technologies S.á.r.l

Academic background:

Diploma Degree of the Ludwig-Maximilians-University, Munich in organizational sociology, industrial and organizational psychology, intercultural communication

Further education as Mediator at MOW, Berlin and at the Scientific Institute of the University of Heidelberg

Regular training in communication, seminar design, learning and coaching